HAPPY TAILS: ROXIE

Written by: Kathy Wiggins

Five years ago Sarah and Jayce Miller welcomed Roxie, a sweet natured 2 year old rescued Pitt bull, into her forever home. Roxie had no particular health issues but had not been spayed. So late in 2020 Sarah and Jayce decided to make an appointment for the surgery. Unfortunately, due to Covid, their veterinarian had a wait list for non-emergency surgeries.

Early in December of 2021, still on the wait list, Roxie started to lactate and have some blood spotting, but not during her normal heat cycle. Sarah took Roxie to Green River Veterinarian Clinic in Walnut, IL. A urine test showed that Roxie had pyometra, an infection of the uterus. The required treatment for this condition is an emergency spay and if left untreated can be deadly for the dog.

The veterinarian at Green River Veterinarian Clinic referred the Millers to Tri-County Veterinarian Clinic, an emergency Clinic in Peoria. The cost of the surgery was going to be $1,400. However Sarah and Jayce were fortunate that their veterinarian at Green River Veterinarian Clinic was familiar with Rescued and suggested that Sarah reach out for financial assistance, which she did. After explaining the situation, Erin told Sarah that $1,200.00 would be covered by Rescued.

The surgery took place that same night, with no complications. The next day, Roxie was able to return home and stayed on pain medication and antibiotics for about 2 weeks. She was also not allowed to do any jumping up to her favorite spot on the couch.

Sarah and Jayce are so pleased to report that Roxie is doing "fantastic". Sarah added, "We wouldn't have been able to afford the surgery without Rescued's help and Roxie would have had to be put down. This was the greatest holiday gift you could ask for!"

MAKER SPOTLIGHT: RACHELLE

Since Rachelle and Erin met at OMG Beckyfest years ago, she has been involved with Rescued creatively in many ways. The signs hanging above the garage at Rescued were designed by Rachelle! And those wildly popular beanies that sold out right before Christmas? Also the product of Rachelle's creativity (which, by the way, will be returning VERY soon).

Rachelle and her husband are raising their three sons in Moline with their golden retriever, Cooper, and cocker spaniel, Penny. And we will continue to see her exciting contributions to our favorite resale shop, because she is reportedly just as hooked on Rescued as the rest of us! Thank you, Rachelle!
